2. INTRODUCTION & PURPOSE

This manual serves as the official, comprehensive non-technical guide for the newly redesigned institutional web portal of JNTU-GV College of Engineering Vizianagaram (JNTU-GV CEV) (jntugvcev.edu.in).

The redesigned website replaces outdated, static web pages with a vibrant, modern, mobile-friendly digital campus hub. It provides an intuitive interface for students, parents, faculty, researchers, recruiters, and the general public to access official academic resources, news, notifications, departmental achievements, and facilities.

This document guides college administrators, HODs, faculty members, and operational staff on how to navigate the portal, publish circulars, manage departmental web pages, update faculty profiles, and maintain digital campus information seamlessly without any programming knowledge.

3. INSTITUTIONAL OBJECTIVES & KEY BENEFITS

- Centralized Information Hub: Consolidates circulars, syllabi, academic regulations, examination timetables, fee structures, and campus life into one unified digital portal.
- Instant Notice Dissemination: Replaces physical paper notice boards with real-time digital circulars and an emergency notification ticker.
- Department Autonomy with Governance: Empowers Heads of Departments (HODs) to customize their department's web presence, laboratories, and achievements via an intuitive visual editor while maintaining institutional brand consistency.
- Enhanced Student & Recruiter Experience: Offers students instant downloads of academic documents and gives top corporate recruiters a transparent view of placement records, student demographics, and college infrastructure.
- Interactive AI Campus Assistant: Integrates the "JNTU AI" assistant to provide students and parents with instant answers to common questions regarding admissions, exam circulars, syllabus details, and contact directories.
- Showcase of Research & Facilities: High-visibility digital representation for research projects, Ph.D. scholars, campus hostels, central digital library, health dispensary, and student clubs.

4. HIGH-LEVEL WEBSITE ARCHITECTURE & SITEMAP

5. TARGET STAKEHOLDERS & USER ROLES

Stakeholder Group	Primary Needs & Use Cases on the Website
Students & Scholars	Download syllabus/regulations, check exam circulars, view timetables, access hostel/library guidelines, talk to JNTU AI.
Faculty Members	Maintain official faculty profiles, update research publications, list teaching subjects, access academic calendars.
Heads of Departments (HODs)	Manage department web pages, update laboratory profiles, highlight student/faculty achievements, customize sidebar tabs.
College Management / Principal Office	Publish official notices, update leadership messages, broadcast urgent ticker announcements, oversee IQAC reports.
Corporate Recruiters & Industry	Review placement statistics, discover department specializations, contact the Training & Placement Officer (TPO).
Parents & General Public	Check admission procedures, explore campus facilities (hostels, healthcare, sports, banking), access transport details.

6. FEATURE WALKTHROUGH BY PORTAL & MODULE

6.1 Home Page & Emergency Notice Ticker

- Header Banner: Prominently displays the official university crest, title, national accreditation badges, and primary contact links.
- Urgent Notification Ticker: A live, scrolling marquee at the very top of the screen that highlights crucial updates (e.g., examination results, holiday announcements, emergency notices).
- Hero Slider: High-resolution campus photographs with quick-action buttons for Admissions, Examinations, and Placements.
- Leadership Corner: Formal messages and vision statements from the Vice-Chancellor and College Principal.
- Fast Statistics Counter: Live numbers highlighting total students, faculty strength, campus acreage (100+ acres), and placement success rate.

6.2 Academic Affairs Module (/academics/*)

- Academic Regulations: Complete digital repository of R20, R23, and R25 regulations for B.Tech, M.Tech, and MCA programs.
